

How old is Ann?

Let V represent Mary's age now. Ann was then X years old. 2X equals 10, which was Mary's age when she was 10 years old. V equals prime. 2Vs equals 10, and 10 equals the price of a glass of primo lager. A glass of primo lager every day will keep you always young, healthy and strong and Ann is as old as she looks.

FUNERAL OF W. H. CORNWELL

SERVICES AT MASONIC TEMPLE AND CENTRAL UNION CHURCH—INTERMENT IN NUUANU.

The funeral of the late William H. Cornwell was held yesterday afternoon. The services in the Masonic Temple were held under the auspices of Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, Dr. Derby being the Master. After this service the casket was borne to the hearse and followed by the widow of the deceased and relatives and Honolulu Commandery, Knights Templar, was conveyed to the Central Union Church.

At the church the coffin rested under a mass of flowers. Seats were reserved for a delegation from the Pacific Club, for the members of Hawaiian Lodge and for the Knights Templar. In the pews directly in front of the pulpit were the widow, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cornwell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Brainer, Mrs. Widdifield, Mrs. Vida, E. B. Friel, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Baird, the Misses Vida, Henry Vida, Col. and Mrs. George W. Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Macfarlane, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane.

The Masonic ritual was used, and a suitable address was made by Rev. William Morris Kincaid. A quartette consisting of Walter and Isaac Dillingham, Clifford Kimball and Arthur Wall sang several selections during the services.

The services at the Masonic Temple and the church were well attended. In the procession to the cemetery were: Drum Corps from the National Guard of Hawaii; Platoon of Police; Honolulu Commandery, Knights Templar; Hawaiian Lodge, No. 21; Pallbearers—S. M. Damon, Samuel Parker, W. M. Gifford, Godfrey Brown, C. P. Iaukea, Arthur A. Wilder, David Kawananakoa, J. M. Dowsett, Robert W. Shingle and J. F. Bowler; hearse; carriages with relatives and friends.

The interment was in the family plot in Nuuanu cemetery.

Funeral services were held at the home of the deceased, Waikapu, Maui, Thursday afternoon, November 19, at 1 o'clock. Rev. Dr. E. G. Beckwith of Paia officiated and a double male quartet led by W. J. Coe and Rev. W. Ault rendered sacred music. The attendance of friends from different parts of the island was large and the display of flowers was profuse. The coffin was covered with lilwa leis and there were many beautiful floral pieces.

After the services the body was borne immediately to Maialaea Bay where it was placed aboard the steamer Mauna Loa in transit for Honolulu. One of the most noticeable floral pieces at the Cornwell funeral was a pillow with a Jockey cap and a whip across with the letter "H. J. C." above, which stand for Hawaiian Jockey Club.

OBJECT TO MORMONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 11.—Several hundred petitions, from nearly every state in the Union, protesting against Reed Smoot retaining his seat as junior senator from Utah were filed in the Senate today. Religious organizations of all kinds are among the organizations which have filed protests. Some of these petitions charge that Senator Smoot has practiced polygamy while others assert their objections on the charge that he is a member of an organization which countenances plural marriages. It is not likely the charges will be considered before the conclusion of the special session.

THE HARVEST HOME.

The Colonial Harvest Home Fair given by the Woman's Guild of St. Clement's church last Saturday afternoon and evening, was a very successful affair. The extreme high wind that prevailed during the afternoon doubtless interfered somewhat with the attendance as it certainly did with the attractiveness of the decorations. But in spite of this the attendance was good, and the ladies having in charge feel very much gratified at the success achieved. The receipts were in the neighborhood of $750, though all accounts are not yet in. It is hoped at the meeting of the Guild tomorrow afternoon to make up complete accounts.

PLANTERS ARE IN SESSION

himself of the fact that the work in the Hawaiian cane fields is not adapted to white people and that our sugar industry could not get along without Asiatic labor.

The crops of many plantations have been seriously damaged during the past year by the new insect pest, called the Leaf-hopper; however, there is reason to believe that this danger will be entirely removed after enemies have been distributed and increased in sufficient numbers to check the propagation of the leaf-hopper. Reports received from various districts indicate the coming crop to be in splendid condition and it is to be hoped that the weather will continue to be favorable so as to somewhat offset the many hardships we have to contend with. An understanding has been reached with the new Department of Agriculture and Forestry, for the joint employment of two additional entomologists and I would recommend that the Planters freely avail themselves of the services of these gentlemen whenever needed. Professor Koehle, to our regret, returned in very poor health from his successful trip to Mexico in search of lantana destroyers and it was absolutely necessary for him to take a much-needed vacation. He is, however, at the present time engaged in the search for enemies of the various insect pests, particularly the leaf-hopper.

Mr. William Haywood, the Washington representative of this Association, whose services proved to be quite satisfactory, has been re-engaged for another year.

Mr. H. M. Whitney, for many years Editor of the "Planters Monthly" has retired from active business. Your trustees filled the vacancy by the appointment of Mr. Royal D. Mead, our Assistant Secretary, who, in the short time of his editorial work, has shown himself to be competent in every respect.

It is with deep regret that I have to record the death of Mr. Joseph B. Atherton, one of your trustees, who, at the time of his death, held the office of Vice-President.

In conclusion, I wish to mention that the reports of various committees will be submitted, as usual, for consideration and I trust much good will result therefrom.

Once more, allow me to remind you of that true proverb: "In Union there is Strength."

The president's address was received with applause and was approved.
